VIENNA, October 20. N. S.

ON the 5th Inſtant the Imperial Court went to Halbturn: That and the next Day the Weather was very fine. On the 7th began a ſevere Froſt. On the 8th in the Morning the Earth was cover'd with Snow; the Emperor however went at Noon to hunt, and ſtaid abroad till ſix in the Evening: That Night was ſo cold, as to kill the Vines in this Country. On the 9th the Emperor was indiſpoſed. The 10th and 11th he continued out of Order. Yet he hunted on the 10th, and would have done ſo the 11th and 12th, had not the Weather been extremely rigorous: He went however on the 12th to his Stud, and ſtaid there in the Cold for Three Hours; by all which his Diſorder was increaſed. On the 13th he reſolved to return to the Favorita, tho' the Weather ſtill continued very ſharp, and at his Arrival there in the Evening was feveriſh: That Night and the 14th he had ſome Eaſe; but on the 15th his Diſtemper became violent. In the Evening his Miniſters were near two Hours with him, and he ſign'd ſeveral Papers: The ſame Night he was blooded twice in the Foot, which gave him ſome Relief: But on the 16th and 17th he grew worſe and worſe. On the 18th he took the Sacrament publickly at Noon; the 19th at Two in the Morning he received the Extreme Unction; and at Half an Hour after One o'Clock this Morning he expired.

LONDON, October 28.

Letters from Ratisbon, Cologne, Cleves and divers other Parts ſay, that the Emperor was taken with a violent Cholick, owing to an Indigeſtion, which was follow'd with a continual Vomiting and a Fever, and that he died of an Inflammation in his Bowels.

A particular Letter from Vienna ſays, that laſt Thurſday Fortnight, the Day on which his Imperial Majeſty died, his eldeſt Daugher MARIA-THERESA-WALPURGE (marry'd to the Great Duke of Tuſcany) was proclaim'd Queen of the Romans, Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, Princeſs of Tranſylvania, Archdutcheſs of Auſtria, and Succeſſor to all the Hereditary Dominions of the Houſe of Auſtria, according to the Diſpoſition which the Emperor made on the 8th of April, 1713, by the Name of the Pragmatick Sanction; which was approved by the Majority of the States of the Empire in 1732, and is guaranteed by Great Britain, the States-General, and Denmark; but was oppoſed by the Electors of Saxony, Bavaria, and the Biſhop of Freyſingen and Ratisbon.

The deceaſed Emperor of Germany was Charles Francis of the Houſe of Auſtria, the Sixth of that Name, born the 21ſt of September, O S. 1685. elected Emperor Oct. 2. 1711. crown'd King of Hungary May 10, 1712. and King of Bohemia, Sept. 5, 1723. He married at Barcelona, on the 12th of Auguſt, 1708, Elizabeth-Chriſtiana, Daughter of Lewis Rodolph, late Duke of Brunſwick Blanckenbourgh, and Chriſtiana Louiſa, Daughter of Albert Prince of Oetirgen.

The ſaid Empreſs, now his Dowager, who was born the 28th of Auguſt, 1691, abjur'd the Lutheran for the Roman Catholick Religion the 20th of April, 1707. and has had the following Children by him; viz.

I. Leopold Joſeph, born in 1716 but died the ſame Year.

II. Maria-Thereſa-Walpurge, born the 2d Day of May, 1717, and married to Francis Stephen Duke of Lorrain, the 21ſt Day of January, 1736. to whom ſhe has borne one Daughter, Mary-Elizabeth-Amelia, Jan. 25, 1737, and another Daughter born in September, 1738.

III. Maria-Anna-Leonora-Wilhelmina, born Sept. 3. 1718.

IV. Maria-Amelia Carolina, born in 1724, and died in 1730.

The Emperor's Father was Leopold, who was born Sept 14, 1640. choſen Emperor July 18, 1658, and died April 24. 1705. having had Three Wives; and by the 3d Wife, viz. Eleonora Magdalena of Nieubourg (the Daughter of Philip William Elector Palatine) he had Ten Children, five of whom died young. They that ſurviv'd were the two laſt Emperors Joſeph and Charles; Maria Elizabetha, now Governeſs of the Auſtrian Netherlands, born the 3d of December 1610; Maria Anna, born Aug. 28, 1683, and married at Lisbon the 26th of June, 1708, to John V. the preſent King of Portugal; and Maria Magdalena, born March 16, 1689. who reſides at Vienna unmarried.

The deceaſed Emperor, after a War of 14 Years, carried on with the Aſſiſtance of the Emperors Leopold his Father, and Joſeph his Brother, to make himſelf Maſter of the whole Spaniſh Monarchy, made the Peace at Radſtadt in 1714 with France, as he did at Lergth with Spain, by the Treaty of Vienna in 1725, on theſe Conditions, That renouncing the Spaniſh Monarchy, he ſhould keep the Kingdoms of Naples and Sicily, and the Ports and Places ſituate on the Coaſts of Tuſcany, and that Part of the Netherlands which formerly belong'd to the Crown of Spain. But by Virtue of a ſupplemental Treaty with France in 1735, the Emperor parted with Naples and Sicily to Don Carlos, the King of Spain's ſecond Son, who is now ſtiled King of the Two Sicilies; in Lieu of which the Succeſſion to the Dutchies of Tuſcany, Parma and Placentia, were entail'd upon him, on the Demiſe of the Great Duke.

Cadiz, Oct. 4. The Toulon Squadron paſs'd the Streights the 26th of laſt Month, ſailing towards America with a favourable Wind. M. de Roche Allard, the Commander, (it's ſaid) having open'd his Orders at a certain Heighth, detach'd four Men of War back to Toulon, where they are to join ſome other Ships, in order to form a new Squadron.

Conſtantinople, Oct. 15. One cannot enough expreſs the Miſery to which People are reduced in this Capital by Famine and Peſtilence. The Emperor's Ambaſſador and the Grand Vizir paid their Viſits by Water, to avoid the infectious Places.

Madrid, Oct. 21. We have receiv'd Advice from St. Andero, that the five Ships of War which were equipp'd there had ſet ſail ſome time ago, in order (as it is given out) to follow the Ferrol Squadron to the West-Indies.

Hamburgh,

Petersburg, Oct 8. The Empress keeps her Chamber still with the Gout: And Mr Finch the King of Great Britain's Minister, has also been ill these eight Days: His Indisposition is thought to retard the Conclusion of the Treaty.

Edinburgh, Octob. 7. For several Days past we have had excessive cold Weather; and we hear from many Places in the Country, that the Snow was upwards of a Foot deep, in so much that it was not possible for the Reapers to cut down the standing Corn.

Dublin, Oct. 14. Ten Ships at Cork loaded with Provisions for France, to the amount of 10,000 Barrels of Beef, would have sailed notwithstanding the Embargo, but were prevented by the Mayor sending an Express to Lord Montague Bertie, Commander of the [illegible] Gun Ship at Kinsale, who immediately went to Cork, and stopt them, with some Difficulty; nay, he was obliged to make use of a powerful Argument to one, before she would come too —'Tis certain an Embargo at this Time is of infinite Use, but surely it might be better enforced by some small Ships of War, than any written Order.

Venice, Oct 15. The Captain of a Vessel arriv'd here from the Island of Cyprus reports, that in his Way hither he heard, that the Plague which had raged some Time at Smyrna, continued to make great Havock there: That it raged very much at Alexandria and Dalmatia; and that there died in one of those Towns 200 Persons a Day.

Hanover, Oct 28. Since the News of the Emperor's Death, they talk here of making a considerable Augmentation of the Troops.

Extract of a Letter from Capt John Peddie of the Ship Prince of Orange, from St Christopher's, dated Downs, Oct. 30, 1740.

THis comes to acquaint you of my safe Arrival in the Downs, this Morning at Three o'Clock, after a tedious Passage, beating five Weeks with an Easterly Wind, and on the 23d of this Month in Lat. 49, 40, about 30 Leagues to the Westward of Scilly, at Half an Hour past One, a Spanish Privateer came up with us: We fir'd 3 Shot at him, he hoisted English Colours and bore down upon us; we taking him for an English Man of War made no Resistance. When he came under our Stern, we discover'd him to be an Enemy: He pour'd in his Broadside upon us with all his small Arms. Our Guns being all wet below, we had nothing ready to return him but our Quarter-Deck Guns and small Arms; I clapp'd the Helm hard a Weather, and run him aboard on the Quarter, which did him considerable Damage. After he got clear he shot a head, and lay by a Quarter of an Hour, by which time we were all ready to receive him; then he bore down upon us, and we gave it him pretty heartily for Three Hours and an half, when he bore away: I bore after him, but finding he got from us, I clapp'd on a Wind again. He was a Ship of 18 Guns 6 Pounders, and I believe as many Swivels, and 150 Men at least, tho' I believe we lessen'd his Number before he went away. We lost in the Action the Boatswain and 3 more; five of our Sailors and a Negro Woman wounded.

LONDON, Oct 21.

From Portsmouth we hear, that his Majesty's Ship the Victory is perfectly repair'd of the Damage she lately received, and is ordered to be mann'd with all Expedition.

We hear that the Docks of Harwich, and Kingsale in Ireland, will again soon be put into a Condition to repair and build Men of War.

Oct 23. The Lords of the Admiralty grant no Protections at present to any Ships except Coasters.

'Tis confirm'd by a Gentleman arriv'd from France on Saturday, who paid a Visit both to Dunkirk and Graveline, that they have actually 30 000 Men at work in repairing the Fortifications; that the Troops are so commodiously canton'd along the [illegible], that in a Day's Time they can assemble 20,000 Forces; and that they keep so strict a Guard, that no Stranger is suffer'd to come within a Quarter of a Mile of their Works.

Oct 25. The Nassau a 60 Gun Ship now lying at Chatham, is order'd to be victuall'd for Service with all Expedition.

Yesterday was launch'd at Mr Bird's Dock, a Bomb Ketch, for his Majesty's Service.

Oct. 28. There has been shipped on board the Fleet under Sir Chaloner Ogle no less than 700 Tons of Rice, which is by Experience known to be of great Service in America, and for that Reason bought up by the Commissioners of the Victualling.

On Saturday Night his Excellency the Earl of Waldegrave, his Majesty's Ambassador to the Court of France, arriv'd at Dover, and is this Evening expected at his House in Albemarle-street.

Oct 30. Yesterday came Advice that several more Ships from France, were arriv'd at Cork in Ireland, in order to load Provisions, but an Embargo being laid, their further Progress was stopt.

All all our private Letters from France agree, that the Mosselmans are gravell'd and irritated to the last Degree at the general Embargo laid upon Shipping in Ireland, that has prevented the Beef of that Kingdom from sticking in their Stomachs.

The Laurel, Trosse, and the Goodhope, Seagers, from Philadelphia, bound for Lizbon, were lately taken by a Spanish Privateer, who went off to them as a Pilot Boat, and carried into Peniche, about two Leagues North of the Rock of Lizbon.

His Excellency the Earl of Waldegrave continues so ill at his House in Albemarle-street, that his Lordship has not yet been able to wait on his Majesty.

Nov. 1. We hear the Lords of the Admiralty have given Orders, that none of the Sailors in the Prince of Orange, Capt. Peddie, shall be prest, for their great Bravery and Courage in defending so gallantly the said Ship from the Spanish Privateer which lately attack'd her.

On Wednesday last died at Monmouth Mr. William Seward formerly belonging to the Treasury Office in the South-Sea-House, and lately very remarkable in being a Disciple and close Follower of Mr. George Whitefield.

CHARLES-TOWN, Jan 29.

Extract of a Letter from Nassau in Providence, dated the 12*th of this Instant.*

JUST now Capt. Frew arrived here from Hispaniola. On the 27th of last Month he spoke with a Sloop which had been Four Days from Jamaica, who gave him an Account of Lord Cathcart and the Fleet's being arrived there.

That a Packet arrived at Port Royal from England, the Day the Sloop sail'd, but it was not yet open'd: But that 'twas said a French War wou'd soon be declar'd.

And that Thirty Sail of Line of Battle Ships were arriv'd at Carthagena, all commanded by French Captains.

He also gave him the following List of his Majesty's Ships at Jamaica, under the Command of Admiral Vernon and Sir Chaloner Ogle.

BOSTON, December 18.

We have Letters from Capt. Dumaresq and Capt. Willis, Commanders of two Privateers belonging to this Place, dated in October last, at Gibraltar, advising, That the said Capt. Willis being cruizing off of one of the Canary Islands, contrary to his Opinion his Men came to a Resolution to go ashore; and accordingly 50 of his stoutest Hands landed on the first of October, and march'd up towards a small Village, but how they came off is not known; for Capt. Willis with the Remainder of his Company cou'd not wait 4 or 5 Days for their Return, but hearing nothing of them, and seeing a considerable Number of Spaniards upon the shore (who made Signals to him to come to them) thought it not safe for him to wait any longer, and therefore sailed directly for Gibraltar; where he arriv'd in 6 Days, and was there recruiting, in order to go another Cruize about the same Islands.

Capt. Dumaresq writes, that 216 Pipes of Spanish Wines he had taken, with a Prize, were condemn'd at Gibraltar, after his waiting there two Months; and that he has taken another Prize suppos'd to be worth 5000 l. of our Currency. We also hear, that several other small Prizes have been taken by Capt. Dumaresque.

That off of St. Padre two Spanish Privateers engag'd Capt. Dumaresq, one of them had 80 Sailors and 80 Soldiers on board, and a great many Brass Guns; but after a smart Engagement, the Dons thought proper to make the best of their Way to Cadiz, from whence 'tis thought they were fitted out.

We have surprizing Accounts from the Country, especially the Eastern Parts, of Damage done by the overflowing of Rivers, occasion'd by the late Rains. 'Tis said above Thirty Mills at the Eastward only were carried away, a great many Bridges, many hundred Cords of Firewood, and Logs, Boards, and other Lumber without Account, carried down the Rivers into the Sea. 'Tis said the Inundation was so extensive, that the like was scarcely ever known before: And Travellers inform us, that in all Parts of the Province, the Roads rendered almost impassable.

By a Vessel from the Eastward, we are inform'd, that sundry Vessels have been cast away upon that Shore, they having seen several Wrecks ashore upon their Passage.

Yesterday we had a very violent Storm of Wind and Snow; as several Vessels are daily expected in, 'tis fear'd we shall hear of further Losses by way of the Sea.

Newport, Dec. 5. Capt Dan. Browne arrived here last Tuesday in 17 Days from Hispaniola, who brings Advice, that an Express was sent by Post, in 24 Hours from St Luce to Cape Teperoon to the General, informing that 20 Sail of the Line, and 8 smaller Ships were arrived there from France.

CHARLES-TOWN.

By Capt. Morgan from New York we hear, that they have an extream hard Winter there, and that the River Delaware is froze fast quite down to the Bay.

On Saturday last died here Mr. Peter Fillieux, aged 86 Years: He was one of the first Settlers in this Province, having lived in it 55 Years: He was under the sensible Decays of Nature for several Years past, and may be truly said to have died of that incurable Distemper Old Age.

This Paper having been very much crowded for this Month past, we hope our Readers will excuse our not having inserted the following Articles sooner, viz.

On the 29th of December last, died Mrs. Desire Peronneau Wife of Mr. Alexander Peronneau of this Town, aged 59 Years.

On the 10th Instant, died Mrs. Isabel Kimberley of this Town, Widow, aged 73 Years.

And on the 14th, died Mrs. Mary Smith also of this Town Widow, aged 66 Years.

We might justly have given the above Persons large Characters, but as they were so well known, 'tis needless to mention any more, than that as they lived much beloved, so they died greatly lamented.

PRICE of the following Goods.

Rice 47 s 6 d. per C.	Turpentine 22 s. 6.
Pitch 46 s.	Skins 18 s.
Tarr 35 s.	Indian Corn 10 s per Bush.

St. Bartholomew's, December 17. On the 6th Instant at Night died Mr. William Ellerson of this Parish: He was born and lived in England till about sixteen Years of Age; then with Governor Yeamans went to Barbadoes: On the Invasion made by the Spaniards on that Island, he with others settled in this Province in its Infancy, where he lived 61 Years, and to the Age of 82, much beloved by all that knew him, and those not a few; the Situation of dwelling for 37 Years, and his Hospitality inducing Numbers to call upon him, who were not only refresh'd at his Expence, but chearful Instances given of his Good Will to every one, except such whose Behaviour or Principles justly caused his Disregard and Neglect: He was blest with a serene and steady Turn of Mind, tho' under a Job like Trial of a turbulent Wife, who exercised his Patience for the Term of 56 Years; and when he was deprived of his Sight, he with equal Resignation received the stroke, and only lamented that he was rendered incapable of employing himself as a useful Member in the Community whilst he enjoyed a good Habit and Strength of Body, which he frequently exercised (amongst his Relations who lived with him) being displeased if he had not the Cradle and Infant, or what ever else he could do. As he was happy in his Temper, so he was merry and gay in Conversation, and a pleasant old Man in young Company, not checking but allowing the inoffensive Sallies of Youth, and never austere or severe, but good natur'd, kind and communicative; and by the Help of a wonderful Memory, was a just living History of this Province publick and private. A few Hours before his Exit, being chearful and of a sound Understanding, he observed to those with him, that he cou'd not charge himself with any one Act to make the Approach and View of Death terrible; and indeed it appeared so, for with great Decency, and the usual Concern for the Ease and Quiet of those about him (going well to Bed) he would have expired alone, had it not been for a Servant in another Room who heard him uneasy, tho' two Persons were in the same Room. No Man ever acted in the various Scenes of Life with more Applause, esteemed and reverenced for honest and laudable Principles, being truly great, and he was really good.
